DETAILED ACTION

1. This non-final office action is responsive to amendment entered on 02/25/04. Claims 1-22 are pending in this office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4,7-11,14-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable over Pullera et al., Pat. No. 5751593.

Regarding claim 1: Pullera teaches a system comprising:

a timing test portion testing timing of the integrated circuit, based on circuit information and delay information indicating a circuit structure of the integrated circuit (col. 13, line 18 through col. 14, line);

a circuit modification portion modifying the circuit information, based on a timing error recognized in said timing test portion (col. 13, line 18 through col. 14, line);

a delay presumption portion presuming the delay information from the modified circuit information without designing layout with the circuit information modified in said circuit modification portion (col. 13, line 18 through col. 14, line) ; and an information update portion updating the circuit information and delay information of the integrated circuit based on the circuit information modified in said circuit modification portion and the delay information presumed in said delay presumption portion, to provide to said timing test portion (col. 13, line 18 through col. 14, line).

Regarding claims 2-4,7-11,14-22: These claims teach well known features to support its independent claims similar to claim 1 and rejected in the same manner.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5,6,12 and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The reason for allowance is that the prior art of record fails to teach the combination of dependent claims and all other features of corresponding independent claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been considered and the new search found the prior art as resulting of above action.
